

Short Curriculum

Dr. Giovanni Mauri, M.D.

Born in Milano, Italy, April 26th 1982

Email: vanni.mauri@gmail.it

Dr. Giovanni Mauri work as Interventional Radiologist at the Division of Interventional Radiology of the European Institute of Oncology, where is clinical practice is mainly dedicated to Interventional Oncology. He graduated and achieved Board Certification in Radiology at the University of Milan, and he had a fellowship in Interventional Radiology at St George's Hospital, University of London, and a Research fellowship in Interventional Radiology at Brigham and Women's Hospital, Harvard Medical School, Boston.

Dr. Mauri published 172 papers on peer-reviewed journals (H-index =37). and gave more than 200 scientific presentations at national/international meetings.

In 2020 he coordinated the panel of experts selected by CIRSE and ETA for the development of European Clinical Practice Guideline for the Use of Minimally Invasive Treatments in Malignant Thyroid Lesions, which were published in 2021 on European Thyroid Journal.

He is one of the founders of the Minimally Invasive Treatments of the Thyroid (MITT) group, and actually the Chairperson of the Thyroid Ablation Task Force of CIRSE.

In 2023 and 2024 he was recognised by Stanford University as one of the World's top 2% Scientists.

Milan, 29/04/2024

Dr. Giovanni Mauri, M.D

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "Giovanni Mauri". The signature is written in a cursive, flowing style with some loops and flourishes.